St. Anthony's (N.Y.) 56, Mansfield 45

In its second contest of the weekend, Mansfield stuck around but would eventually fall to St. Anthony's (N.Y.) (9-1) on Sunday.

The Hornets trimmed their deficit to two points late in the third, but a 6-0 run to end the quarter for St. Anthony's swung the momentum back their way.

Meg Hill once again led the Hornets in scoring (15), rebounding (11) and blocked shots (5). Junior Maggie Danehy finished with 13 points and eight boards.

“There were a lot of elite players at the showcase; it was pretty cool,”

Hornets coach Mike Redding said after his team's weekend trip to New York.

“It's tough to lose back-to-back games, but in the long haul this trip pays dividends.”

Mansfield (7-4, 5-1 in the league) host KP Tuesday.
