

Vigeant late show lifts Mansfield past North

MANSFIELD - Emily Vigeant knocked down a pair of 3-pointers in the fourth quarter to help the Mansfield High girl's basketball team pull away in a Hockomock League win over North Attleboro High Tuesday night, qualifying the Hornets for the MIAA South Sectional tournament.

Mansfield (11-3, 9-2 Hockomock) held North Attleboro to three points in the first quarter, but the Rocketeers stormed back to cut their halftime deficit to 20-17.

The teams scored nine points apiece in the third quarter before the Hornets offense created separation.

"It was a tight game," Mansfield coach Mike Redding said. "We got off to a good start, but they battled back and just hung around."

Danehy led Mansfield with 13 points, while Vigeant and Mady Bendanillo had 12 points apiece.

Julia Fied's 12 points led North Attleboro (5-10,3-8), which travels to Stoughton Friday, while Mansfield plays at Attleboro Friday.
