MANSFIELD -- Oliver Ames used a 6-0 run after being tied 34-34 with six minutes to go to help propel the Tigers to a seven-point victory over the Kelley-Rex division champion Hornets.

The Tigers were able to grab an advantage at the line during the second half, making eight of 11, while playing lock-down, aggressive defense to help grab the win.

Maggie Danehy led all Hornets with 13 points while Mady Bendanillo added 10 as well, including a 3-pointer.

Oliver Ames was helped by two players in double figures as Kayla Raymond had 14 points and Erin Holmberg 11 points.

The Hockomock Kelley-Rex Division champions (16-5, 14-2), play next at home on Monday against Marlboro in the Roundball Tournament.
